"Love on the Ledge" Packages Offer Romantic Views, Private Access to Skydeck

CHICAGO – Jan. 26, 2010 – This Valentine's Day, Skydeck Chicago at Willis Tower invites guests to experience "Love on the Ledge." With awe-inspiring views atop the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere, The Ledge will ensure a breathtaking Valentine's Day experience for romance-seeking couples.

"The picturesque views of Chicago seen from The Ledge are both inspiring and romantic," says Randy Stancik, Vice President of U.S. Equities Asset Management, which manages Skydeck Chicago. "It's a unique way to celebrate Valentine's Day and a great place to share a special evening with someone you care about."

Adventurous couples can defy gravity as they dare to stand out on The Ledge more than 1,350 feet over Wacker Drive, looking out over a spectacular daytime view or the nighttime twinkling Windy City. This one-of-a-kind date will be an extraordinary and unforgettable experience.

In addition to a regular Skydeck Chicago visit, the location also offers one hour of private or semi-private access for anything from proposals and weddings to vow renewals. A "Love on the Ledge" package can include photography, catering, hotel and officiate recommendations for special occasions.

Since it opened in July, The Ledge has hosted unique weddings and proposals due to its remarkable and romantic views of the city.

Bride Katie Anderson of Bolingbrook was married on The Ledge in September: "It was the perfect wedding and having it at The Ledge made it even more special," Anderson said. "Now every time my husband and I drive into the city, we easily spot Willis Tower in the skyline and are reminded of the most important day of our lives."
